

LITTLE SHOP OF HORRORS

CALLBACKS!

Thank you for attending auditions! We had so many incredibly talented individuals audition and we are eagerly anticipating callbacks next Saturday, April 4, from 10am-1pm. Callback materials will be posted here TOMORROW, Sunday March 29. Please print/download and prepare your own materials. There will be no time for teaching during callbacks. Please plan to attend the entirety of the callback window. Everyone will have the opportunity to read or sing for the roles they were called back for, but there is no guarantee you will sing/read ALL of the materials. Cuts will be made throughout the process.

If you auditioned and were not called back, THANK YOU for your time and preparation. Our city is so immensely talented and we are so thankful you came to us. Sharing meaningful stories is a responsibility we do not take lightly and we are honored you shared your passion with us.

See you next Saturday!
